The Northwest-Vestern and 30,000 of the Indianapolis, Destock of the Louisville and Nashville Company is appressed by the following resolutions of the development of the following resolutions of the company opposition. WHEREAS, As the interest manifested it the development of the Louisville and Nashville railroad system by foreign capitalists, and the incalculable benefits resulting therefrom to our merchants and shippers make the disposal of the city's stock in that company at any time a question of doubtful policy; therefore, be it Resolved. That we heartily approve the action of our city commissioners in with drawing this city's stock in the Louisville and Nashville railroad entirely from the market. Resolved, That we heartily approve the motion of our city commissioners in with drawing this city's stock in the Louisville and Nashville railroad system that the sale of the induced of the country are rot favorable at this time for the market. Resolved, That the general markets of the country are rot favorable at this time for the disposal of valuable property of this kind and we think the outlook of the business of this road is such as to warrant the city in holding its stock; we therefore recommend that the sale of it be indefinitely postponed, and as merchants and manulacturers we heareby express our most condisispitify of coperation with the efficers of that road, and continued confidence in the integrity and comprehensive ability of its present management.
